YES – BELOW ZERO... THANK YOU – BUT MORE VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Charles Walters writes: I contacted you in the Summer about a new service to help people who are homeless and sleeping rough in York. We called it YES - Below Zero and the service is now up and running and offering an evening meal and a bed for up to 5 people each night, 7 nights a week. I wanted to say thank you for publicising our plans and helping us recruit volunteers from your church to run the service. We were delighted with the response. But to keep the service running we need to add volunteers to the team and would appreciate it if you could continue to make your members/congregations aware of the service and the need. For further information visit www.belfrey.org/notices or email charles@christthelight.org.uk to register your interest.
