THE HOLY GOSPEL FOR THE SIXTEENTH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR, YEAR B: 18TH JULY

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark 6: 30-34

The apostles rejoined Jesus and told him all they had done and taught. Then he said to them, 'You must come away to some lonely place all by yourselves and rest for a while;' for there were so many coming and going that the apostles had no time even to eat. So they went of in a boat to a lonely place where they could be by themselves. But people saw them going, and many could guess where; and from every town they all hurried to the place on foot and reached it before them. So as he stepped ashore he saw a large crowd; and he took pity on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he set himself to teach them at some length.

The Gospel of the Lord.

This Sunday's Readings

Jeremiah 23:1-6      Ephesians 2: 13-18      Mark 6: 30-34

Loving Lord, I'm glad that you also knew what it was like to be achingly tired and desperate for a break. Help me to keep the balance between work and play. Amen.

"Lord, teach us to step outside ourselves. Teach us to go out into the streets and manifest your love."
Pope Francis

An act of Spiritual Communion when we are unable to take part in Mass

My Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as being already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.
