India: Mother Teresa's sisters face delayed approval of foreign funding

The Indian government has announced that it has not renewed the licence allowing the Missionaries of Charity (MoC) to receive funding from overseas. According to a statement released by the Indian Union Home Ministry on Monday, the MoC does not meet conditions under local laws.

Sue Ellis is the Lay Hospital Chaplain in York. If you have any parishioners who would like a visit contact her direct 07748 108253 or via the Chaplains' office number 01904 725579

The Diocesan year book is now in the porch of the church price £1.00 The church is open each day.

Our next parish meeting to help organise the parish without a priest is on Wednesday next at 7.00pm. Your attendance and support would be very welcome. Please book for the meeting. See the agenda on the noticeboard.

Our Third World collection this weekend is CAFOD for Afghanistan and the desperate situation there. I know you will be as generous as you can to help the starving people in that troubled country. Afghan families are in urgent need of humanitarian assistance: food, water and shelter.

Church cleaners please collect your rota for 2022 from inside the porch. Thankyou Annette Woolley tel 490324
